

TONBRIDGE U3A

WHAT IS THE U3A? [University of the 3rd Age]

It is an association for shared learning in a social atmosphere in which members, no longer in full-time employment, pool their knowledge and abilities for mutual benefit. No qualifications are required of members and none are awarded. Tonbridge U3A is a member of the Third Age Trust which offers advice, resources and other help.

TONBRIDGE U3A OFFERS:

- Monthly meeting with a guest speaker
- Monthly outings
- Theatre visits
- Approximately 80 different groups [Please refer to list below]
- Short courses and Study days
- Monthly Tonbridge U3A News
- Quarterly Third Aid Trust magazine

When you've paid your subscription, you will receive a membership card (to be shown at monthly meetings and some other occasions), the members' handbook and Tonbridge U3A News.

GROUPS include:

Accidental Chefs	German Conversation
Ambling	Great Bear (The)
Appreciating Craft & Design	Greek (Classical)
Architecture	Indoor Bowls
Art to Share & Care	Industrial Heritage
Art Viewing	Mah Jong
Aspects of Language	Maps
Book Circles	Modern History
Bridge	Music Appreciation
Bus Ramblers	Music from the Musicals
Canasta	Opera
Chess	Patchwork & Quilting
Circle Dancing	Philosophy
Computing	Play Reading
Country Dancing	Poetry for Pleasure
Country Walks	Scrabble
Croquet	Strolling
Digital Camera	Table Tennis
Embroidery	Take One Day
Exploring London on Foot	Theatre
Family History	The Rest is Noise
Finance & Economics	Travel
Foreign Films	Wildlife
French Conversation	World Affairs
Galleries, Exhibitions & Museum Visits	Writers' Workshop
Garden Visits	Writing for Pleasure
Geology (Earth Sciences)	Writing Poetry